

Review

Scalable reviews for large & small matters

Whether you are seeking to

- develop a review workflow for a simple or complex matter
- interpret ESI protocols and develop a compliance strategy
- staff, train, and manage contract review teams
- provide tracking and reporting metrics on review progress and budget
- conduct a nuanced privilege review and required logging

our team can guide you step by step.

Over 95% of our review work is for matters in which our Firm is not serving as merits counsel

- We are specifically engaged to manage end-to-end e-discovery while working closely with merits focused in-house and outside counsel
- We recognize that each case and each client have unique challenges that may require matter-specific workflows
- We routinely work with clients and merits counsel to tailor each review to meet their needs while leveraging our experience, practices, and workflows
- We have developed detailed tracking and work flow processes to ensure that data is collected, processed, reviewed, and produced according to client needs and case requirements
- We fill an accountability and quality control gap between clients and counsel
- As a practice of the Firm, we provide accountability and defensibility in court on e-discovery issues by seasoned e-discovery litigators

Our reviews span a broad range of experience from investigations to class action litigation to large transactions

- Arbitrations
