

Insights

September 6, 2019

Discovery Counsel Vital In All Phases Of Mass Tort Litigation

By Heyward D. Bonyata, Jennifer Jokerst, Peter Meyer

Reprinted with permission from Law360

A “virtual law team” is a collaborative and technology-based team of lawyers selected for specific tasks in defending a single client’s litigation. In this eighth article in the series examining key roles on virtual law teams in mass tort litigation, we examine the role of discovery counsel.

Companies often engage groups from multiple law firms, each retained to handle a different aspect of litigation but all working together as one virtual law team to represent the company’s interests, particularly in large or complex, multijurisdictional cases. Dedicated discovery counsel is a significant piece of the legal team puzzle for several reasons. View Full Article

View on Website

These materials have been prepared for informational purposes only and are not legal advice. This information is not intended to create, and receipt of it does not constitute, an attorney-client relationship. Internet subscribers and online readers should not act upon this information without seeking professional counsel.

MEET OUR AUTHORS

Heyward D. Bonyata
Partner

T 803.255.9655
heyward.bonyata@nelsonmullins.com

Jennifer Jokerst
Associate

T 904.665.3655
jenni.jokerst@nelsonmullins.com