Two from Nelson Mullins Encompass Complete Georgetown E-Discovery Training Academy

Firm Associate Wendy Degerman and Discovery Analytics Specialist Mallory Maier-Acheson completed the Georgetown E-Discovery Academy on Friday June 8th. This week-long training in Washington, D.C. focused on all aspects of the e-discovery process from collection to productions and culminated in mock exercises before federal court judges.

Hosted by Georgetown Law, the seminar was attended by electronic discovery specialists from all over the United States.

Wendy Degerman, Esq. is an associate in Nelson Mullins's Columbia office, who focuses on electronic discovery for several large national and multi-national corporations. Mallory Maier-Acheson, Esq. is an analytics specialist in Nelson Mullins Encompass's Nashville office.

Nelson Mullins Encompass is one of the only truly comprehensive data center to courtroom e-discovery providers in the country. It provides clients with end-to-end electronic discovery technology, document review, and integrated counsel and advocacy.
